Jewish Art Calendar
Year 5782
2021-2022

Dear Friend,

Preparations are under way for the printing of our annual Jewish Art Calendar in Longmont Colorado. Chabad Jewish Center of Longmont will be producing this attractive multi-color publication and mailing it to the Longmont Jewish community and surrounding areas free of charge.

The calendar will include detailed information about upcoming holidays, educational messages, Shabbat and Holiday candle lighting times, traditional Jewish recipes, and popular thematic artwork. The practical design also provides ample room for the recording of personal information and appointments. The calendar will also include many of the much-anticipated events and programs of Chabad Jewish Center of Longmont.

The calendar will also feature opportunities for your family's special occasions, i.e. Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Yahrzeits, birthdays and anniversaries, to be printed in the calendar.

We believe this is also an extraordinary advertising opportunity to market your business or services to the Jewish community. Unlike newspaper ads that are seen once and discarded, this business promotion will benefit you continuously, as it is displayed in homes and offices throughout Boulder County the whole year round, thus ensuring optimum visibility for your products or services, and maximum return for your dollar.

Your participation helps us with this worthy endeavor, as well as with our other efforts on behalf of Jewish continuity. Please take a moment to fill out the form and return it to us. Your early response will be greatly appreciated.

Warm regards,

Yakov Borenstein

The Holy Shabbat Acrylics by Michael Muchnik

Shevat 15

New Year for trees, when trees begin to bud in Israel. It is customary to eat many fruits, especially those for which the land of Israel is praised in Scriptures.

Shevat 22

Yahrtzeit of Rebbetzin Chaya Muska Schneerson, wife of the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Schneerson.

Kosher FoodFood for the Soul

Just as there are foods that are good for the body and foods that are harmful, so there are foods that nourish the inner person—the soul—and foods that harm it.

The Kosher Laws are Torah's guide to those foods that affect the Jewish soul adversely. Any meat or fowl that is eaten must be slaughtered in a prescribed, humane fashion. Meat and milk must never mix. Scavengers, predatory beasts and fish, shellfish and certain other animals are forbidden. Any processed foods must be produced under strict supervision.

Eating is Sacred

When they talk about spirituality, people think about meditation, prayer and maybe music. Few imagine eating as a spiritual activity. But according to the Torah, everything a person does is another way to infuse the world with spiritual meaning. Especially eating. When a person eats food with the proper mindfulness and uses the energy of that food for good things, the food becomes elevated through his eating.

That's another reason for Kosher guidelines. Kosher foods are those that a Jewish soul is able to elevate. Non-kosher foods are those that will only drag the soul down. When enough people are busy elevating the world rather than being dragged down by it, the world is able to reach its fulfillment, the time described by the prophets as the Era of Moshiach.

It's Never Been Easier To Keep Kosher
 Seventy percent of the packaged foods in your cupboard are probably kosher already. Kosher foods are the fastest growing segment of the food industry. Going the full mile can be a smooth, step-by-step process—each step a mitzvah all on its own:

Don't mix meat and milk.
 Cut out pork, shellfish and non-kosher fish.
 Buy only kosher meat.
 Buy only those processed foods that have kosher certification.
 Make your kitchen kosher.
